PIRATES TO HOST 1994 ALL-STAR GAME

The 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game will be played at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh on July 12, 1994. It will mark the fourth time that the midsummer classic has been hosted by the Pirates. The last time was back in 1974 when Yogi Berra's National League All-Stars defeated Dick Williams and the American League All-Stars, 7-2. Los Angeles Dodger first baseman Steve Garvey, who was voted to the starting line-up as a write-in candidate, was the game's most valuable player. Ken Brett, the only Pirate selected to the N.L. squad, was the winning pitcher. Forbes Field was the site of All-Star games in both 1944 and 1959.

The 1994 All-Star Game logo (pictured on the cover) was designed to incorporate a Pirate look with the Pittsburgh skyline. Prominent in the design are Fifth Avenue Place, the USX Tower, PPG Place, One Mellon Bank Center and the Fort Pitt Bridge.

PIRATES TO UNVEIL CLEMENTE STATUE

The Pittsburgh Pirates will kick-off All-Star Week festivities on July 8, 1994, when a statue honoring Roberto Clemente will be dedicated on the grounds of Three Rivers Stadium. The Hall of Fame outfielder spent 18 seasons with the Pirates before he tragically died in a New Year's Eve plane crash in 1972 while accompanying relief supplies from his native Puerto Rico to earthquake-ravaged Nicaragua. Pittsburgh native Susan Wagner was selected as the sculptor for the Clemente statue project. Tax deductible contributions can be sent to: "A Statue for Roberto," P.O. Box 7000, Pittsburgh, PA, 15212.

THE MANAGER

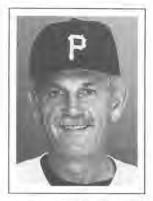

10 JIM LEYLAND (MGR)

1994 OPENING DAY AGE: 49

BORN: Dec. 15, 1944 in Toledo, OH

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

HEIGHT: 6'0" WEIGHT: 180
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

Jim Leyland is in his ninth season as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. During his first eight seasons with the club, he has compiled a record of 665-624 (.516 winning percentage) and established himself as one of the finest managers in the game of baseball. Last season, Leyland's young Pirates finished fifth in the National League Eastern Division with a record of 75-87

During the 1992 season, he guided the Bucs to a 96-66 record and their third straight division championship. Pittsburgh became the first N.L. team to win three consecutive division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Under his direction, the Pirates have put together the best record in the league and the second-best record in all of baseball over the past four seasons (364-284, .562 winning percentage).

In 1992, Leyland was named National League Manager-of-the-Year by both The Sporting News and the Baseball Writers Association of America. It marked the third time he has won The Sporting News award (also won it in 1988 and 1990) and the second time he has been honored by the BBWAA (also in 1990).

Leyland is the fourth-winningest manager in the 107-year history of the Pirates. Only Fred Clarke (1,422), Danny Murtaugh (1,115) and Chuck Tanner (711) have won more games as skipper of the Bucs, Leyland picked up his 600th career victory on April 15, 1993 when the Pirates defeated the San Diego Padres, 5-4, in 13 innings @Jack Murphy Stadium. He entered the 1994 season seventh among active major league managers in career victories, trailing Sparky Anderson (2,081), Tommy Lasorda (1,422), Tony LaRussa (1,202), Bobby Cox (957), Joe Torre (821) and Buck Rodgers (748). Anderson and Lasorda are the only major league managers who have been on their current jobs longer than Leyland has been in Pittsburgh.

Leyland helped make the 1990 season memorable by guiding the Bucs to a 95-67 record and their first division title in 11 years. The season came to a close when the Pirates lost to the eventual World Champion Cincinnati Reds in the National League Championship Series, four games to two. Pittsburgh dropped the 1991 N.L.C.S. to the Allanta Braves, four games to three, after finishing the regular season with the best record in baseball (98-64). The Pirates lost another dramatic seven-game battle with Atlanta in the 1992 playoffs.

When he was named manager of the Pirates on November 20, 1985, Leyland inherited a team that had finished 57-104 the previous season. His first Pirate club showed a seven-game improvement to 64-98, but still finished sixth in the division. The 1987 club won 27 of its last 38 games and tied Philadelphia lor fourth place with an 80-82 mark. The Pirates improved to 85-75 in 1988 and finished second in the N.L. East behind the New York Mets. In 1989, the Bucs were hampered by injuries throughout the season and finished fifth with a 74-88 record.

His appointment as manager of the Pirates followed more than 22 years in professional baseball, including 11 seasons as a manager in the Detroit Tigers' farm system. Leyland also spent four seasons (1982-1985) as third base coach of the Chicago White Sox under Manager Tony LaRussa prior to coming to Pittsburgh.

A catcher during his playing days, Leyland signed his first professional contract with Detroit in 1963. He served the organization as a player, minor league coach and minor league manager until joining the White Sox in 1982. After six seasons as a player (1964-1969), he was appointed coach at Montgomery (AA) in the Southern League in 1970, Leyland received his first managerial assignment at the age of 26 in 1971, taking over the Tigers' Bristol club in the Appalachian Rookie League. His composite record as a minor league manager was 730-672 (.521 winning percentage) and his teams advanced to post-season play six times in 11 years. Leyland won league championships with Lakeland (Class A) in 1977 and 1978 and was named manager-of-the-year in the Florida State League both years. He was also American Association Manager-of-the-Year in 1979 after leading Evansville (AAA) to the league title.

39 MILT MAY (Hitting Instructor)

1994 OPENING DAY AGE: 43 BORN: Aug. 1, 1950 in Gary, IN RESIDES: Bradenlon, FL

Milt May is in his eighth season as hitting instructor for the Pirates. The former major league catcher was named to the post on November 11, 1986. His role entails working with hitters on their mechanics and discussing with them the tendencies of opposing pitchers. May played 14 full years in the major leagues before retiring following the 1984 season. After spending one year as vice president of a bank in Bradenton (FL), he worked for the Pirates as an advance scout, a roving minor-league catching and hitting instructor, and as a manager in the Florida Instructional League in 1986.

Selected by Pittsburgh in the 1968 June Free Agent Draft, May made his major league debut with the Pirates at the age of 20 in 1970. He played three full seasons with the Bucs before moving on to Houston, Detroit, the Chicago White Sox and San Francisco. May was reacquired by Pittsburgh in August of 1983 and closed out his career with the Bucs. He compiled a .263 lifetime batting average with 77 home runs and 443 RBI in 1192 major league games.

May was named to the All-Star squad in each of his three minor league seasons—Gulf Coast Rookie League in 1968, Western Carolinas League in 1969 and International League in 1970. At age 21, he delivered a game-winning, pinch-hit single in Game Four of the 1971 World Series vs. Baltimore. Traded to Houston after the 1973 season, he drove in Bob Watson with major league baseball's one-millionth run on May 4, 1975 when he hit a three-run home run at San Francisco. He was traded to Detroit following the 1975 season, but played just six games with the Tigers in 1976 due to a fractured ankle. He spent the second half of the 1979 season with the White Sox and then signed with San Francisco as a free agent for the 1980 season.

Ray Miller is in his eighth season as pitching coach of the Pirates. One of the most respected pitching coaches in baseball, he was named to his current post on October 20, 1986. His duties include overseeing pitching mechanics, helping prepare game plans and scouting reports on opposing hitters, as well as keeping daily pitching charts and records.

Miller is a former manager of the Minnesota Twins, who also had a highlysuccessful stint as pitching coach of the Baltimore Orioles. In seven and a half seasons (1978-85) with the Orioles, he coached two Cy Young Award winners (Mike Flanagan and Steve Stone) and five different 20-game winners (Flanagan, Stone, Jim Palmer, Scott McGregor and Mike Boddicker). In 1990, Doug Drabek of the Pirates became the sixth different 20-game winner and the third different Cy Young Award winner coached by Miller. John Smiley became his seventh 20-game winner in 1991.

Miller (Continued)

Baltimore appeared in the World Series twice during Miller's tenure there, losing to Pittsburgh in 1979 and defeating Philadelphia in 1983. In 14 full seasons as a major league pitching coach, his teams have finished either first or second nine times and have had a losing record only three times. His teams have also averaged 90 wins a year during that period (excluding the strike year of 1981).

Originally signed by the San Francisco Giants, Miller began his professional career in 1964 with Lexington (Class A) in the Western Carolinas League. He led the league in shutouts, was second in ERA and pitched a no-hitter before being drafted by the Cleveland organization following the season. Miller was traded to the Baltimore organization in May of 1971 and ended his playing career with Rochester (AAA) club in 1973, a year in which he became a player-coach. His 10-year career pitching record was 60-65.

From 1974 to 1977, he served as Baltimore's minor league pitching instructor before joining the Orioles at the major league level for the 1978 season. Miller became manager of the Minnesota Twins on June 21, 1985. The club went 50-50 under his direction in his first year and was 59-80 in 1986 when he was replaced by Tom Kelly on September 12th.

19 BILL VIRDON (Coach)

1994 OPENING DAY AGE: 62

BORN: June 9, 1931 in Hazel Park, MI

RESIDES: Springfield, MO

Bill Virdon rejoined Manager Jim Leyland's coaching staff for the 1992 season after spending the previous three seasons as a spring training instructor and a minor league hitting instructor in the Pirate organization. He served as the team's hitting instructor during Leyland's first season as manager back in 1986.

Virdon has more than 40 years of experience in professional baseball as a player, a coach and a manager. Considered one of the finest centerfielders of his day, he spent the majority of his 11-year, big-league playing career with Pittsburgh. He made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1955 after winning the International League batting title with a .333 average with Rochester (AAA) the previous season.

In 1955, he batted .281, hit 17 home runs and drove in 68 runs to earn National League Rookie-of-the-Year honors from the Baseball Writers Association of America and The Sporting News. The following season he was traded to Pittsburgh in exchange for pitcher Dick Littlefield and outfielder Bobby Del Greco. Virdon compiled a career-high .319 batting average in his first season as a Pirate and finished second in the N.L. batting race behind Milwaukee's Hank Aaron. He batted .264 with eight homers and 40

RBI for the 1960 World Champion Pirates and hit .241 with three doubles and five RBI in the World Series that year. Virdon was awarded a Gold Glove for his defensive excellence in 1962.

After he retired as a player, Virdon managed in the New York Mels' farm system for two seasons before rejoining the Pirates as a coach under Manager Larry Shepard in 1968. He replaced Danny Murtaugh as manager prior to the 1972 season. The Pirates won the N.L. East title during his rookie season as manager, but suffered a heartbreaking loss to the Cincinnati Reds on Bob Moose's infamous wild pitch in the fifth and deciding game, Ironically, Virdon was replaced by Murtaugh during the 1973 season. The team was 67-69 at the time.

Virdon managed the New York Yankees to an 89-73 record and a secondplace finish in 1974. He was named Major League Manager-of-the-Year by both The Sporting News and Associated Press that year. It was the Yankees' highest finish in more than a decade. New York was 53-51 when Virdon was fired by George Steinbrenner the following year.

Virdon was hired to manage the Houston Astros late in the 1975 season. He guided Houston to the 1980 National League Western Division crown and was also at the helm when the Astros won the second-half title during the strike-shortened 1981 season. His seven-year mark with Houston was 544-522 (.510), which makes him the winningest manager in the history of the tranchise. In 1979, he was named United Press International Manager-of-the-Year after the Astros finished second in the N.L. West. In 1980, he was again named Manager-of-the-Year by The Sporting News after Houston won its division for the first time in club history, Virdon's last managerial assignment was with the Montreal Expos in 1983 and 1984, His composite record in 13 years as a major league manager was 995-921 (.519).

PERSONAL: William Charles Virdon . . . Wife's name is Shirley Three children; Deborah, Linda and Lisa . . . Nicknamed "Quail" by former Pirate broadcaster Bob Prince . . . Attended Drury College in Springfield, MO . . . Hobbies include golf and hunting.

PIRATE BROADCASTERS

Lanny Frattare

The 1994 season will be Lanny Frattare's 19th as a broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirales. Only Bob Prince (28 years) has described the action of Pirate baseball longer. Rosey Rowswell also broadcast Pirate games for 19 years.

Since joining the Bucs' team of announcers in 1976, Frattare has done play-byplay for upwards of 3,000 games and developed a strong following. Fans are familiar with his popular sayings such as, "There was no doubt about it" and "Go ball get outta' here."

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 with the Geneva (NY) Senators (Class A). Frattare's association with the Pirate organization began in 1974 and 1975 when he broadcast games for the Triple-A Charleston (WV) Charlies. In addition to his experience with the Pirates, he has also done play-by-play for Penn State football and Ohio State basketball in the past.

Frattare enjoys golf, presidential history and music. He does charitable work for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Goodwill Industries and Bob Prince Charities. He also hosts a celebrity golf tournament at St. Clair Country Club each July for the benefit of the Parent and Child Guidance Center and he is a member of the board of directors for Pirate Charities. He and his wife Liz reside in Upper St. Clair with their daughter, Megan. Their son, David, attends college at John Carroll University in Ohio.

Major League Baseball and its 28 clubs will celebrate the 125th anniversary of professional baseball in 1994.

The first professional baseball team, the Cincinnati Red Stockings.

was formed in 1869. Prior to that, the game was played on an amateur basis only.

As part of this year's festivities, MLB Properties has designed a special 125th Anniversary logo. The logo is a variation of the Major League Baseball logo created for baseball's centennial celebration in 1969.

Throughout the season, MLB and the clubs will celebrate the Anniversary through various events and ceremonies. Teams will wear a commemorative patch on their uniforms and specially licensed merchandise will be available.

Two years earlier, also at Forbes Field, Pirate shortstop Glenn Wright turned an unassisted triple play against St. Louis on May 7th.

DID YOU KNOW... Ralph Kiner led the N.L. in homers in each of his seven full seasons with the Pirates (1946-1952) and in five of those seasons he hit at least one homer in every N.L. park. The breakdown of Kiner's 301 Pirate home runs: 175 at Forbes Field, 23 in Brooklyn, 24 in Chicago, 19 in St. Louis, 18 in Boston, 17 each in New York and Philadelphia, and eight in Cincinnati.

History of the Pittsburgh Pirates

Now in their 108th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending leaguechampion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League — the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American > Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams.

As part of the move, Barney Drevfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates.

Pirate President Barney Dreyfuss -

In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell — plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach, All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a postseason playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903. Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however. later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a threegames-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers — Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions — Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

One of the greatest third basemen in baseball history, Pie Traynor compiled a .320 lifetime batting average.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park — which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium — their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's — with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey — Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336 which is still a Pirate rookie record. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's most valuable player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a :333 career batting average. Lloyd - who was tagged "Little Poison" - hit ,300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

Between them, Paul (left) and Lloyd Waner collected more than 5,500 hits and are the only brother combination in Baseball's Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against the New York Yankees famed "Murderers" Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1.959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirate uniform (1946-52) which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th to May 28th (mark was tied by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including Bill Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and future Hall of Famer Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's. Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was the National named League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams.

In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In fact, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club in the 25 years since divisional play began in 1969. The Bucs put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning percentage).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente who balted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296).

The newest chapter of Pirate history began on October 2, 1985, when a group of public and private investors — committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh — reached an agreement in principle to purchase the Pirates from the Galbreath family and Warner Communications.

Under the direction of Manager Jim Leyland, the Pirates won three straight National League Eastern Division Titles (1990-1992).

Pittsburgh Associates is made up of 10 investors who represent six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group includes the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Pirates became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. He has guided the Pirates to a record of 364-284 over the past four seasons, which is the best mark in the league during that period (.562 winning percentage). Only the Toronto Blue Jays have won more games than Pittsburgh during the decade of the 1990's.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area have responded to the club's success, turning out at Three Rivers Stadium in record numbers in recent years. The Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991 and established new franchise attendance records in three of the past six seasons.

The 1994 season promises to be quite exciting for Pittsburgh baseball fans. The Pirates will compete in the new National League Central Division along with the Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Reds, Houston Astros and St. Louis Cardinals. In addition, Three Rivers Stadium will be the site of the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game on July 12, 1994.

RETIRED PIRATE UNIFORM NUMBERS

NO. 1 — BILLY MEYER... Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, Tenn., died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

NO, 4 — RALPH KINER . . . Born Oct, 27, 1922 In Santa Rita, N.M. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-52), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs in June, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back allment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, second only to Babe Ruth's 8.5 per 100 at-bats. Number retired in 1987.

NO. 8 — WILLIE STARGELL... Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, Okla. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates.
